

Can't Believe my eyes

1

Well the first time ever I see you, you're dancing on the floor.
You sway just like a diamond back, baby, and I swear I can't take no more.
I see you moving towards me, I feel your breath on my side.
You say you're gonna be with me, and there ain't nowhere to hide ...

Chorus:

I can't believe my eyes, oh, the way you move your hips,
The way you touch your thighs, the way you lick your lips ...
I can't believe my eyes.

Well I go down to my best friend's house, don't know what I will find,
The door is open so I walk right in, and I almost lose my mind.
I see your shoes on the carpet, I see your dress on the floor,
I hear your voice coming from the other room, I take a look through the door ...

Chorus:

I can't believe my eyes,

He's standing behind you in the bath tub, he's washing down your back,
You sure are having such a good time baby, 'cause you're holding nothing back.
I hear you sing in the shower, I see the soap on the floor,
I see you bend down to pick it up, and I can't believe what I saw ...

Chorus:

I can't believe my eyes, the way you move your hips,
Can't believe your lies, coming from those blood red ruby lips,
And the way you touch your thighs, with the long slender fingertips,
I can't believe my eyes, oh, the way you move your hips.
