

Best of Friends

© Mario Vickram Sen, 15 July 1997

1

It's sometimes hard to be with you,
Remembering the years we were as one.
It's often some obscure regret
Intrudes when we're beginning to have fun.
I keep my feelings to myself,
Suppressing what I know I should not say,
'Cause memories can't substitute
For this relationship we have today.

Chorus:

And now I know, although there's something we've forever lost,
I won't begrudge this heavy cost, if only you and me...
We can forever be... the best of friends.

Bridge:

Your beauty seems to grow beyond all bounds,
Perhaps it's just that I can see you clearer now.
I'd never want to feel I let you down,
So I shall not forsake this sad unspoken vow

2

If we could turn back time, I know,
We probably would still end up this way.
'Cause things must be the way they are
And there's no use reliving yesterday.
Still sometimes when I feel like this,
I fantasize our love had found no end, (but then I remember that)
Lover's come and go again,
And few of them remain the best of friends.

Chorus:

And now I know, that we could never be the same again,
Despite the fact we've made amends and now plainly see,
The way it has to be.
And now I know, although there's something we've forever lost,
I won't begrudge this heavy cost, if only you and me...
We can forever be... the best of friends.