

One Time Two Time

© Mario Vickram Sen - Sept 2001 (revised 2 April 2006)

1

When I was only six years old
I woke up in the morning, it was dark and cold
My mama sitting there by the door
Waiting for my daddy to come home.

2

She said he'd been out all night long
And I could tell there was something wrong
'Cause when he came back at the break of dawn
Then I heard my mama say...

Chorus:

I'm gonna tell you just one time
I ain't the one that you wanna two time
And if you two time this one, one more time
You know it's gonna be the last time.

3

When I was seventeen I had a pal,
Who fell in love with such a beautiful gal.
But she betrayed him in every way,
Until he had the nerve to say,

Chorus:

Bridge:

And now you say that you love me true,
I can't believe it, 'cause I heard about you.
They say you got a new boy every day,
Listen now to what I say,

Chorus